

Using Members Centre

to check your membership longevity

Once you login to Membersnet, you should see the following panel in the centre.

The screenshot shows the Labour MembersNet dashboard. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Profile, Campaigning, Training, Party Activity, My MembersNet, My Bookmarks, and Whats New?. Below this, the user's name 'Dave Levy' is displayed with options to 'Edit profile' and 'Log out'. A 'My MembersNet' section includes links for 'Events' and 'Train to Win', along with icons for 'Labour campaign shop', 'Labour member centre', 'Labour campaign creator', and 'Donation Reporting'. The central 'Access MemberCentre' section features a large heading, a description: 'MemberCentre is Labour's online national membership database', and a blue hyperlink: 'Click here to access the system.' To the right of this text is a small screenshot of the MemberCentre interface. On the far right, there is a 'Search Mem' box and a 'Do you have' button. Below that, there is a 'Membersnet h' section with text: 'We've tidied up M content and maki find the things yo campaigns. As a result, some work, or pages m if you can't find w'.

The words "Click here to access the system" are a hyperlink, click to access Member Centre.
