

National Constitutional Committee 2018

Campaigning for a Labour victory. For a democratic and accountable NCC.

Nominations are now open for six new CLP places on the NCC. The deadline for CLP nominations is 28 October. Each CLP can nominate up to six candidates. The nominations can be made at a General Meeting or if there is not time to hold one, at a CLP Executive Committee or by CLP officers.

The candidates below are committed to securing a Jeremy Corbyn led Labour government and, if elected to the NCC, would act impartially, insist on natural justice and fairness to all and seek to improve the integrity of Labour's internal disciplinary processes.

They are backed by: the Campaign for Labour Party Democracy (CLPD), Jewish Voice for Labour (JVL) and the Labour Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament (LCND).

Kaneez Akthar

CLP: Keighley & Ilkley CLP
Membership Number: B040015

Kaneez is a Labour Councillor in Keighley and has held party positions including Women's Officer.

Annabelle Harle

CLP: Cardiff West
Membership number: A002070

Annabelle has previously served as a Welsh Labour Executive Committee member, National Policy Forum member and CLP Secretary.

Gary Heather

CLP: Islington North
Membership number: A006966

Gary is a Labour Councillor, has previously stood for Parliament and held positions including CLP Chair.

Stephen Marks

CLP: Oxford East
Membership number: A241053

Stephen has previously served as a Labour County Councillor and held positions including Vice-chair of the District Labour Party.

Khaled Moyeed

CLP: Tottenham
Membership number: L0128862

Khaled is a Labour Councillor, who has held positions including CLP BAME Officer. He is Vice Chair of Young Labour Lawyers.

Cecile Wright

CLP: Derby North
Membership number: A481680

Cecile is a former member of the TUC Race Relations Committee, has served on a Mental Health Trust, acted as a Trustee of the National Children's Bureau and chaired a Women's Refuge. She has held positions including CLP Vice-chair.

